Introductory Note

This bibliography has been compiled exclusively from materials available in the Peace Palace Library for the use of the researchers of the Centre for Studies and Research in International Law and International Relations of the Hague Academy of International Law. Originally published in 2017, its bibliographic content will be completed in 2018.

Part I – 1967 – 2017: The 50 years of space law

The Basics of International Space Law

1. The sources of international space law
2. Definition and delimitation of outer space
3. Star wars? A realistic perspective?
4. International responsibility and liability of states in the conduct of space activities
5. The law of outer space: a "self-contained regime"?

International Space Law for the Utilization of Outer Space

6. The law on telecommunications by satellite
7. Information via satellite : a human rights perspective
8. Remote sensing by satellite
9. Navigation by satellite

10. Outer space and developing countries

11. The exploration of the universe

Part II - 2017 – 2067: Space law in 50 years

The legal frame for space programmes of tomorrow

12. Regulation of microsatellites and mega-constellations

13. Legal regime for suborbital flights

14. Legal regime for space touristic activities

15. The exploitation of natural resources on celestial bodies

16. The discovery of life in outer space

17. The colonization of outer space

The major new legal perspectives associated with tomorrow's space activities

18. Protection of the space environment – a truly global concern?

19. Space traffic management – a new perspective for space law?

20. The future of international and regional space cooperation

21. European space cooperation: a model for international space cooperation?

22. Development of a new body of private international space law?

23. The adaptation of space law to new challenges as of 2067

24. An international space agency as administrator of the "international common" outer space?

Cinquante ans de droit de l'espace - Le droit de l'espace dans 50 ans: bibliographie sélective

Note introductive

Cette bibliographie a été préparée sur la seule base des matériaux de la Bibliothèque du Palais de la Paix à l'usage des chercheurs du Centre d'étude et de recherche de droit international et de relations internationales de l'Académie de droit international de La Haye. L'information bibliographique d'origine, publiée en 2017, a été complétée jusqu'en 2018

Partie I. 1967- 2017 : Les 50 ans du droit de l'espace

Les principes fondamentaux du droit international de l'espace

1. Les sources du droit de l'espace
2. La définition et la délimitation de l'espace
3. La guerre des étoiles? Une perspective réaliste?
4. La responsabilité internationale pour les activités spatiales
5. Le droit de l'espace: un régime cohérent?

Le droit international des utilisations de l'espace

6. Les télécommunications par satellite
7. L'information par satellite au service des droits de l'homme
8. La télédétection par satellite
9. La navigation par satellite

10. L'espace et les pays en voie de développement
11. L'exploration de l'univers

Partie II. 2017 – 2067 : Le droit de l'espace dans 50 ans

Le cadre juridique des programmes spatiaux de demain

12. Le lancement et l'exploitation de microsattelites et de mega-constellations
13. Les vols suborbitaux
14. Le tourisme spatial
15. L'exploitation des ressources naturelles des corps célestes
16. La découverte de la vie extraterrestre
17. La colonisation de l'espace

Les nouvelles perspectives juridiques associées aux activités spatiales de demain

18. La protection de l'environnement spatial
 19. La gestion du trafic spatial – une perspective nouvelle pour le droit de l'espace?
 20. Le futur de la coopération spatiale internationale et régionale
 21. La coopération européenne dans l'espace: un modèle pour la coopération internationale dans l'espace?
 22. Le développement du droit international privé de l'espace?
 23. L'adaptation du droit de l'espace aux nouveaux défis en 2067
 24. Une agence internationale pour l'administration de l'espace en tant que "bien commun"?
